

Social Studies Essay

1. The legend that led many explorers into New Mexico was the legend of the Seven Cities of Cibola.

2. The interactions between Cabeza de Vaca and the Indians were the Indians enslaved all four of the soldiers including Cabeza de Vaca.

The interactions between Fray Marcos de Niza and the Indians were he was worried they would kill him like they did to Estéban. Fray Marcos only viewed the Indian's village from a distance.

The interactions between Francisco Vasquez de Coronado and the Indians were the Indians tried to kill him but he and all his soldiers struck back and killed all the Indians.

